BOY, PAGE MR. BURNS— BIG FORTUNE IS WAITING.

(By International News Service.)
New York, March 30.—Boy! Page
Mr. Burns!

Paging the Mr. Burnses of the country is precisely the task confronting I. M. Sackin, of No. 5 Beckman street, who is in charge of a large sum of money seeking an owner—first name and present whereabouts unknown.

Here is how it happened: When Lincoln called for volunteers in '60 David Burns, then living at No. 135 East Twenty-first street, this city, stopped his work and marched off to battle. He was in such haste to respond that he notified no relative and made no disposition of a tidy bank account.

David Burns never came back. His unclaimed earnings lay in the bank, swelling by the increment of interest until now they represent a large fortune even in these days. The windfall awaiting the claim of the right Mr. Burns.

growing kind go to

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE TO HAVE MEETING.

Charles A. Hardin, chairman of the Democratic state central and executive committee, has called a meeting of the two committees for Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the Seel-ters of the Democratic party, authorized at the last meeting of the committee, will be formally opened.

PRINT PAPER SCARCE.

Consumption of news print paper is exceeding production and mill stocks are gradually falling off. Federal Trade Commission figures made public show shipments of 52,693 tons for the first two weeks in March, while only 50,318 tons were produced. Mill stocks March 17 amounted to 28,327 tons, of which 22,293 were standard news. Production from January 1 to March 17 was 242,839 tons for the same period last year.
Loss of production for the first two weeks of March is ascribed of strikes on the Pacific coast, lack of fuel and closing down of mills at Niagara Falls by Government order.

HIKING FOR HUSBANDS.

Chattanooga, Tenn., March 29.— After riding on the trains as far as their money would carry them, and then walking four days along country roads to reach the soldiers who had promised to marry them, Misses Margaret King and Ruth Brown, of Lexington, Ky., reached Port Oglethorpe a few days ago, only to find one of their fiancés transferred to Texas and the other in the guardhouse. But the girls are in splendid spirits, Miss Ruth, who was to have married Harry Kiger, Company H, 53rd infantry, says she has seen Harry in the guardhouse, and that he says the wedding, although delayed, will take place Sunday. Her companion, Miss King, was to have wed Private James Scarnice, now in Texas. When asked if she had given up hopes, inquired the distance to Texas. The girls said they paid their way from Lexington, Ky., to some little station in Tennessee, which they cannot recall; from there they walked during the day and stayed at farm-houses at night.

NOPE! BUT THEY ALL WHISTLE.

We pass it on to you even though it was clipped from the Todd County Times: ARE THEY ALL FOUR-LEGGED?
The first jackass in America was sent from Spain as a gift to Gen.
Washington. It would require another million tons of shipping to get all his progeny back on the other side.

GERMANS, 17, FIGHT WITHOUT TRAINING.

Paris, March 30.—The German consul general at Zurich has inserted advertisements in the newspapers inviting all German subjects of the age of 17 years to communicate with the consulate with a view to their being called to the colors, according to the Zurich correspondent of the Petit Journal. Drafting of the class 1921 began in several parts of Germany in the first days of March, according to information from trustworthy sources, and a large number of youths have been sent directly into the war zone in civilian clothing without having received preliminary training.

ONE DAY REVIVAL

NINTH ST. CHRISTIAN CHURCH TO MAKE EVANGELISTIC DRIVE SUNDAY.

The special sermons by Mr. Smith of the Ninth St. Church have attracted large audiences this week.
These services have been preparatory to the "One Day Revival" to be conducted Sunday. A special program has been arranged for the Sunday School and Morning Services. The Young People's chorus will sing at the Sunday School hour. A strong exhortation to all the unconverted members will be made.

Mr. Smith will deliver a special Easter sermon on the subject "A World Savior for a World Crisis." The choir will render several musical numbers.
The afternoon will be spent in personal evangelism. The evening service will be a "consecration service." The public is cordially invited to be present and at all these services.

SOLD FOR DIVISION.

Valuable Residence Property On South Virginia Street.

The Ledford property on the corner of Virginia and 18th streets will be sold for division under an order of court at the court house door on Monday, April 1st, between the hours of 11 a. m. and 2 p. m. It contains a two story dwelling house and other valuable improvements.

PASSING SCENES.

The indications are that Todd county, our neighbor and child, is not to have any more county fairs. The grounds near Elkton have been sold recently. But, Hopkinsville and Christian county and all neighboring counties still have the great Pennyroyal Fair which, to all intents and purposes, is a combination of several county fairs. Todd should not worry!

WHEN HE WANTS DRINK INVESTS IN THRIFT STAMP.

(By International News Service.)
New York, March 30.—"Give me a whisky," a man demanded of Mrs.
H. S. Collins, in charge of a War Savings booth in the Flattron Building here.

Mrs. Collins handed him a War Savings stamp, for which he paid a quarter. Mmm, tastes good; gimme another," continued the genial stranger and paid another quarter.

"You see, it's this way," explained the man as he pasted his stamps on an almost filled thrift card, "whenever I feel like having a drink I hustle and buy a stamp instead, and then I always buy a second one for having the will power to buy the first one instead of a drink."

HAVE YOU WONDERED?

When we read where a certain division of company of a certain army was taken prisoners or where the same had made a bold attack, where so many divisions or companies of the United States will be in France at a specified time no doubt many of us have wondered just how many men there are in a company division, squad or whatever it might be. Following is a list that perhaps might help you:

An army corps is 60,000 men.
An infantry brigade is 7,000 men.
A regiment of infantry is 7,000.
A battalion is 1,000 men.
A company is 250 men.
A platoon is 60 men.
A corporal squad is 11 men.
A field artillery brigade is 1,300.
A field battery has 195 men.
A firing squad has 20 men.
A supply train has 283 men.
A machine gun battalion has 296.
An engineer's regiment has 1,098.
An ambulance company has 66.
A field hospital has 65 men.
A medicine attachment has 66 men.
A major general heads the field army and also each army corps.

A brigadier general heads each infantry brigade.
A colonel heads each regiment.
A lieutenant colonel is next in rank below a colonel.
A major heads a battalion.
A captain heads a company.
A lieutenant heads a platoon.
A sergeant is next below a lieutenant.
